County School News.

Come, let us live for our children.

Keep your face to the sunshine
For then each shadow must fall
Behind your back and so of course
You need never let it all.

Keep your face to the sunshine
For your soul grows strong in the light
To conquer the countless evil germs
That thrive in the shade and the night.

Keep your face to the sunshine
And march toward the sun
And peace and power shall be your lot
Until your day is done.

Mrs. Miller, who lives in District 22, made us a pleasant visit the first part of the week. She is holding down the claim while her husband works in the city. Her son George "keeps back" with papa and goes to school in Liberal. Mrs. Miller is an ex-school teacher and is very much interested in the education of her children.

Prof. Wilson from Newton, Kansas, formerly from Cadez, Ill., made us a pleasant call. He is following Horace Greeley's advice, "Go West Young Man." He thinks of locating out here in the southwest corner of Kansas and may become one of Seward County's corps of teachers. He holds a professional certificate and has had experience in school work.

Misses Lottie Henline, Florence McGregor, Vivian Jones, Gertrude Andrews and Messers Fuller, Light and Green met at Kismet, March 4th and had a very enjoyable and profitable teachers' meeting. They met in the Kismet school house. All took part in the discussion and every one was prepared with his or her part. We are sorry the other teachers in Fargo Township were not present. The teachers in the southern part of Fargo attend the meetings in Liberal as it is more convenient. A teacher ought to attend every educational meeting in her district and county and state that she possibly can. The school boards should gently remind their teachers of this.

Frank Swink writes us that they met March 4th and had a very interesting meeting in Seward Township. The teachers enjoy "The School And Its Life" better than elements of agriculture. Mr. Swink writes "I find 'The School and Its Life' says just what I have been thinking for the last several years but did not know how to say it."

The teachers of Liberal Township met at the court house in the office of the County Superintendent. We had a very good meeting with nearly twenty in attendance counting visitors. Excellent discussions were given on all chapters.

We expect to hold a union meeting of all the townships on the morning of April 1st at the court house, beginning at nine o'clock. We will discuss the remaining chapters of "The School And Its Life" and chapters ten to sixteen and seventeen in "Elements of Agriculture." Miss Lottie Henline will discuss chapter sixteen, "The Farm Home," Frank Swink, chapter seventeen, "Farm Management," Prof. Fulton, chapter ten, "Feeds and Feeding" in "Elements of Agriculture." Prof. Rindom will review the chapter in "The School And Its Life" on Judging Results in Teaching. Miss Florence McGregor, The Superintendent, Miss Alice Smith, the Principal, the County Superintendent, Home and School. We think these books will meet in July and where we hope to meet all the teachers of Seward County for the next school year.

The spelling contest will be April 1st at 2:30 at City Hall. The contest is to see who will represent the district at the county contest which will be held Monday, March 27. The teacher will ask some one or two or more patrons of the district to come and help on that day. This preliminary contest should be written. We will omit rules and suffixes and prefixes this year. Be sure to select the difficult words. Have your pupils trained to write legibly so that there will be no doubt what a letter is. Pupils in grades five and six will spell in part two. Pupils in grades 7, 8 and 9 will spell in part three.

"What is a lake?" asked the teacher. A bright little Irish boy raised his hand. "Well, Mickey, what is it?" "Sure, its a hole in the kettle, Mum."

One morning Pat was trying to chase the cat out of his wife's kitchen. The animal, much excited, hopped on the table and into a large crock of pancake batter. Pat started to throw out the batter when his wife called to him "Sure Pat, lave it alone, the batter aint hurt in the last for all that she touched stuck to her."

First examination for common school diploma, March 25th at Liberal, Kismet and Springfield.

E. E. Heston who lives in district No. 10 called to see what the state allowed a parent for taking children to school who lived more than three miles from the school house. He lives four miles from school and has sent his children quite regularly.

M. B. Cooper made the office a short call Monday afternoon.

We extend our thanks to Prof. Rindom for help given in reviewing papers of pupils who took the teachers' examination to get grades for their common school diplomas.

One new idea is worth a dozen destructive criticisms.

Hillboro Farm,
Liberal, Kas., Feb. 9, 1911

Dear Mrs. Todd:

I have planted my walnuts about six inches deep in sandy soil. They are about four feet apart. I poured a little water in each hole. I planted them early in January and I surely hope they will grow.

Thomas H. Taylor.

We sincerely hope, too, that Thomas' walnuts will grow all O. K.

We have yet some more walnuts and we will be pleased to give some to those boys who have received none and are willing to plant them in a careful manner so that they stand a chance of growing.
